

hardsoul

Producers / DJs / Remixers

- Hardsoul consists of Dutch brothers Roog and Greg van Dueren.
- They have been making music since they were very young. Both had classical piano training.
- Roog has achieved the feat of being voted Holland's No.1 House DJ for three consecutive years - 2000, 2001 & 2002 by Dutch dance magazine Basic Groove. In 2004 he was voted Holland's most popular club DJ by Nieuwe Revu Magazine and was the highest ranked house DJ in the id&t overall poll of 2003, 2004 and 2005.
- Their track 'Back Together', featuring house legend Ron Carroll, was voted number 1 record of the 2003 annual DJ Mag Hype Chart. The track was licensed to the following compilations: Hed Kandi-Beach House, Defected in the House by Simon Dunmore, Soul Heaven by Louie Vega, Defected in the House by Kenny Dope, Southport Weekender by Joey Negro, Miguel Migs and Ministry of Sound Germany by Knee Deep.
- Dave Lee (Joey Negro, Jakarta) named Roog/Hardsoul the most talented DJ/producer of 2003.
- The compilation DJ Roog Presents Hardsoul: The Sound of Love and Dedication 2 (Zomba distribution) was Holland's highest selling house compilation of 2003. The third instalment of the series was released late 2003.
- After the huge success of 'Back Together' Defected asked Roog (Hardsoul) to join their international Defected in the House tour that brought him to London, Ibiza, Sydney, Melbourne, etc
- They were nominated for the Essential Track of the Year award as well as the 'Outstanding Vocal Award' for 'Back Together' at the 2004 International House Music Awards
- The 2004 Defected compilation called 'Soulful in the House' features four Hardsoul productions ▶

hardsoul

Producers / DJs / Remixers

- ▶ and remixes (some mixes are vinyl only). Soulfuric's head honcho Brian Tappert claims "hardsoul is the future of house" in the liner notes of the compilation.
- Their 2004 release 'Committed' on US-based label Soulfuric reached top position in the DJ Mag Hypechart.
- The brothers took their sound to the next level in 2004 - Hardsoul presents Poo & Greg 'Uber' made it onto top UK house label Toolroom. The track was named BBC Radio 1's 'Track Of The Week' and was included on numerous international compilations.
- In 2004 the brothers revived their label Hardsoul Pressings.
- MN2S (UK's biggest DJ agency and London-based clubnights) requested Jon Cutler and Hardsoul to mix their '10 Years of our House' compilation in 2005. It was voted 'Compilation of the Month' in UK's M8 magazine.
- Hardsoul/Poo & Greg were nominated for breakthrough DJ of the year 2005 at the International House Music Awards.
- Hardsoul have again hit the DJ Mag's Hype Chart No.1 spot with their 2006 MN2S release Hardsoul feat. Shaun Escoffery entitled 'No Man'
- In 2006 the brothers started a new label called P&G Electronics for music that wouldn't necessarily be suitable for release on the Hardsoul Pressings label. P&G Electronics is an alternative outlet that specialises in chunky beat-driven sounds.
- Two records on the Hardsoul Pressings label ended up in the 2006 Top 10 of best selling records on Traxsource (USA's number 1 download site for house music), namely 'Deep Inside', and the collaboration between Hardsoul and Ron Carroll on 'My Life'.
- The 2006 release of Hardsoul and Ron Carroll's 'My Life' scored a prestigious 5/5 rating in seminal UK dance publication DJ Mag. The track has been licensed to numerous top compilations, with Seb Fontaine picking it up for Type 2 on Thrive USA and Knee Deep's The Art Of House album. It was also snapped up by Beachland 07 on Blanco y Negro and long-running UK label Azuli's Las Tardes In Ibiza 2007 LP. The newly founded CyberJapan record company gave the record a domestic release in the Japanese territory, reaching the number 2 position in the Japanese Cisco chart.
- In 2005 and 2006 the Hardsoul brothers travel to Japan to perform in Tokyo and Osaka.
- UK's number one house label Defected asked Hardsoul to mix their new international compilation. The release date is expected to be September 2007.
- In 2007 Hardsoul join Defected's brand new Connected DJ agency.
- The 2007 release by Greg, Jeroenski & Poo & Greg entitled 'Your Mind is Twisted' on the P&G imprint is shaping up to be an international underground hit.

